PLEASE BE REMINDED, THIS IS AN OUTDOOR VENUE. You may utilize your designated space as you see fit, provided it does not violate any of the following regulations. This is a family friendly festival.

PLEASE - Designate A drop off location for your member other than the festival grounds.

- We will strictly adhere to allowing only two automobiles pre-applicant onto festival grounds for drop off.
- If you have multiple people dropping off. We will not allow your members to bring a car onto festival grounds to drop off a case of water or any other single items for any booth. We have too many vendors to allow such an undertaking.

Please make sure all of your booth volunteers are familiar with the following list.

- You must abide by Allegheny County Health Department guidelines for serving food.
- An adult must be in every booth at all times.

Electricity:

- Wiring for the festival is carefully mapped to provide each booth with appropriate electricity.
- On the day of event; Please do not ask the electrician to make any changes or additions to your electrical requirements.
- If it is found you did not list all appliances (refrigerators, freezers, fryers etc.) and electric circuits are being compromised, you will be asked to unplug to reduce usage.
- Amperage information and special needs are to be listed on your application.

Literature Distribution

As an organization, you are welcome to engage in appropriate advertising about your group. Please abide by the following regulations:

- YOU CAN set out information about your organization and / or a sign –up sheet to gather contact information for future use.
- YOU CAN place a box for contest submission at your booth
- YOU CANNOT Make this a prerequisite for playing your game or receiving prize.
- YOU CANNOT STAND OUTSIDE YOUR BOOTH AND HAND OUT ANY PRINTED LITERATURE WHATSOEVER.
